Library Materials Donation Form

The Robert W. Woodruff Library benefits from the generosity of its donors. The Library accepts donations of materials that support the curriculum of the member institutions of the Atlanta University Center. Textbooks, periodicals, current newspapers, photocopies, manuals and workbooks are generally not accepted for addition to the collection. The following conditions apply to all library materials donations:

1. The Robert W. Woodruff Library retains unconditional ownership of the gift(s);
2. The Robert W. Woodruff Library makes the final decision on use or other disposition of the gift. Gift items not added to the collection may be disposed of in a manner the Library deems appropriate;
3. Under IRS rules, the Robert W. Woodruff Library cannot make appraisals of donated materials for tax or other purposes;
4. Delivery of materials to the Library is the responsibility of the donor.

Donor Information

Donor Name: ____________________________________________ Date: ______________________
Address: ___________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Phone: _______________________________ E-mail: ___________________________________________

Approximate number of items: __________________________________________________________

Donor Signature: ____________________________________________ Date: ______________________

If you have any further questions, please contact Michael Chromey, Head of Content & Collection Management, either by e-mail (mchromey@aucr.edu) or by phone (404) 978-2007.

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY

Signature of Receiving Librarian: __________________________________ Date: __________________